SAVANNAH, Ga. - Sophomore Randi Schroedel scored the match-

SCORING SUMMARY

2nd - 86:44 - McKenzie Anderson (Armstrong

winner in the 97th minute off of a corner kick to send the third-seeded Armstrong State University women's soccer team into the Peach Belt Conference Tournament semifinals with a 2-1 win over sixth-seeded Clayton State on Tuesday afternoon.

The win means the Pirates (12-3-3) will advance to Evans, Ga., for the PBC Semifinals for the first time since 2012. Clayton State sees its season come to a close with a 9-8-1 mark.

A closely contested first half saw the Pirates collect five shots and the Lakers collect four with neither team having a great opportunity. Clayton State's Denisha Paskell had the first quality chance of second half when her close-angle shot was pushed over the bar by the Pirates' Morgan Luckie in the 50th minute.

Armstrong State thought it had taken the lead off of a corner kick in the 83rd minute, that was put in by the Pirates, but a foul nullified the goal.

The Pirates finally got the breakthrough off of a corner kick in the 87th minute as sophomore McKenzie Anderson headed in a corner kick from junior Sarah Olin inside the far post for her first goal of the season and a 1-0 advantage.

Clayton State answered, however, just 32 seconds later as Maria Marti Bartis got ahold of a loose ball in the box following a free kick and beat Luckie left for her 12th goal of the season, sending the match into overtime.

A pivotal point in the first overtime came in the 92nd minute as Clayton State's Lucy Cunningham picked up her second yellow card of the match, earning a red and forcing the Lakers to play a player down for the rest of the match.

That would be just three more minutes as a corner kick from Olin was punched out by Clayton State goalkeeper Charlotte McCormack, but it fell right to Schroedel, who put the ball into the upper 90 for the match-winner. It was also Schroedel's first goal of the season.

"I'm very proud of our effort today against a very good Clayton State team," Armstrong State head coach Eric Faulconer said. "Clayton State has presented us a lot of problems over the last two seasons. I thought our players did a great job carrying out our game plan and executing it. We have struggled this year to score off of corners, so to see us put in two in pressure situations was rewarding. We haven't been to Evans, Ga. since the 2012 season so I'm excited that our players will have the opportunity to compete for the Peach Belt championship."

The win avenged not only a 3-1 loss to the Lakers during the 2015 regular season, but a 2-1 loss to Clayton State in the 2014 PBC Tournament quarterfinals in Savannah.

Armstrong State finished the match with an 18-13 edge in shots. McCormack made eight saves in net for the Lakers, while Luckie made four saves in net for the Pirates. The Pirates had six corner kicks, compared to three for the Lakes, and the foul count was 13 against Armstrong State and 12 against Clayton State. The Pirates were whistled for offsidess four times and the Lakers were offsidess three times.

The Pirates will play in the second PBC Tournament semifinal match on Friday, November 6th, at 2:00 p.m. at Blanchard Woods Park in Evans, Ga., against the winner of second-seeded North Georgia and seventh-seeded Flagler.
